

ELECTED OFFICIALS AND INFORMATION SOURCES FOR EVANSTON AND SKOKIE

Communicating with State and National Legislators

- For security reasons, most elected officials now prefer to communicate by e-mail.
- Compose e-mail messages as you would a letter, re-reading and editing the message before sending it.
- In your own words, state your reasons for being for or against a particular bill, action, or decision. Refer to a bill by its number or popular name.
- Be objective, brief, and courteous.
- Include your name and address to confirm that you are a constituent.
